Single-dog stress

(psychology) a state of mental or emotional strain or suspense.

01

Sometimes stress is not a bad thing

A couple in wedding attire stands in a park, with a large, out-of-focus cat in the foreground. The cat is light brown with green eyes and its mouth is open, showing its tongue. The couple is in the background, slightly out of focus. The man is wearing a white shirt and brown trousers, and the woman is wearing a white wedding dress. They are standing in a grassy area with trees in the background. The cat is in the foreground, very close to the camera, making it the main focus of the image. The overall scene is a humorous juxtaposition of a wedding and a cat.
